London, Feb. 29.—The Times's Oporto correspondent gives details of the frightful storm reported from there Saturday. He says:

"It is reported that thirty boats are lost and 300 persons drowned. The loss of life is probably under-rated.

The steamer Elbe made three futile attempts to leave Leixoes Harbor on Saturday.

taken refuge.

The storm did not affect shipping in Leixoes Harbor.

Fanny Romaine then tried to tell what Mrs Webster said and what she had answered, but this was rilled our and she went on:

"Mrs. Webster area, went out and down the ball towards Mr. Goodwin's door. I followed her, and when we got to that door I saw Mr. Goodwin standing in the initials of the room.

Labor men agree that it will be well if the strike can be retited. The subering among these poor people, struggling, as they chain, for living wages, is becoming terrible. Many of them have been unable to pay their rent for the last month, and unless Johnsson & Co. yield to the strikers or charitable people come quicky to their aid many of them may not have a roof to shelter them to-morrow oight.

Labor men agree that it will be well if the strike can be rettled. The suffering among these poor people, struggling, as they claim, for living wages, is becoming terrible. Many of them have been unable to pay their rent for the last month, and unless Jonasson & Co. yield to the strikers or charitable people come quickly to their aid many of them may not have a roof to shelter them to-morrow night. Even with eviction threatening them to-morrow, these people declare they will not return to work deleated. Hunger has been endured for a week or more, and it is oreterable, they say, to submitting to the stavery which, they claim, would accompany the ac-knowledgment of deleat.
